

The Butler Weekly Times.

VOL. XXXVIII.

BUTLER, MISSOURI, THURSDAY, APRIL 27, 1916.

Historical Society

NUMBER 28

Peru Items.

Quite a hail storm visited this neighborhood Wednesday evening. The ground was completely covered with hail the size of quail's eggs.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Eckles went to Rich Hill Sunday to visit Mrs. George Thomas, who is in care of Dr. Delemeter. We are glad to hear Mrs. Thomas is improving.

H. H. Evilsizer and family and Gilbert Blankenbaker spent Sunday at the home of Will McGinnis.

Misses Susie and Fern Harper spent Saturday and Sunday with home folks. They were also accompanied by Miss Fannie Bottoms of Butler.

James Thomas and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Kirb Harper.

Those who took the final examination at Peru were: Misses Cecile Thomas, May McGinnis, Clona Medly, Fay Blankenbaker, Velma Gander, Margaret Thomas, Glydas Miller and Florence Belt.

F. L. Blankenbaker and family spent Sunday at the home of W. L. King.

Mrs. Nelle Harper and Miss Annie Bently spent Friday with Mrs. Will Harper. Little Miss Aleen accompanied them home.

Miss Maude Morgan, who has been teaching school at Pleasant Valley, has now returned to her home at Cornland.

Several from this neighborhood attended the program and egg roast at Star Sunday.

Miss Margaret Thomas spent Wednesday night with Miss Cecile Thomas and Miss May McGinnis with Miss Fay Blankenbaker.

Mr. George Stokes and Miss Dorothy Miller were married at Butler Wednesday. They left on the noon train to visit his sister.

E. E. Eckles has purchased a fine team of mules from Mr. Argenbright.

School will close at Peru Friday. A short program will be given in the evening and a big dinner. Every body come and bring a well filled basket.

Miss Hazel Rice, who has been away teaching school, is now with home folks.

E. E. Eckles and R. J. Lyle and some others took their young stock to pasture for the summer south of Rich Hill.

W. H. Gerkin has put a phone in his house. His number is 2 on 3.

Miss Ladine Harper spent Sunday night with Miss Florence Belt.

There will be a short program on observance of the Sabbath day at Peru after Sunday school, April 30.

MINNEHAHA.

North New Home.

Willie Simpson and wife and Henry Herman went fishing last Thursday.

Henry Ehart and Homer Linendoll and son, Albert, and John W. Jones worked on the telephone line last week.

Jack Skaggs lost two shoats by eating cockleburs.

John L. Jones and wife spent Saturday at Mr. Lewellen's near Virginia.

Last Friday was the last day of L. W. Keele's school. They had a program Friday night.

Cradle roll will be observed at New Hope Sunday, April 30th. Mothers with little ones are invited to attend. There will be a short program after Sunday school. Are expecting Rev. L. W. Keele to be present.

Willie Simpson and wife visited at Powell Inglehart's Sunday.

Frank Miller and family and Jack Skaggs and family and Mrs. J. L. Jones and children spent Easter at John Phelps.

Mrs. Cliff Ehart and daughter, Edith, and Mrs. Milt Reeves spent Sunday at Mr. Keeton's.

Mrs. Ben Pickett visited at Claud Berry's Sunday.

Brick McCaughey and family visited at Mr. Gish's Sunday.

Mr. Snider, the Butler and Rich Hill line man, put a telephone in for John Jones Tuesday.

Homer Linendoll and Walter Strein delivered cattle to Butler Monday to Lyman Hensley.

Mrs. McCormack is improving and was able to help gather a mess of greens.

COR.

Mound Pickups.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Richards and daughter, Velma, of Butler spent Sunday at J. B. Ruddell's.

Monday being the birthday of Mrs. J. R. Baum, her friends and neighbors planned a surprise for her. They arrived about the noon hour with well filled baskets. Those present were: Mrs. Jesse Church, Mrs. Webb Shelby, Mrs. J. B. Rice and niece, Mary Crawford, Mrs. Edson Snyder, Mrs. G. O. Thompson, Mrs. Henry Oldham and niece, Mabel Sunquist, Mrs. Hardin, Mrs. H. L. Fransham, Miss Elva Church, Mrs. J. H. O'Dea and daughter, Alleen, Miss Kate Hardin, Mrs. E. D. Wilcox and daughter, Irene, Misses Pearl Rosser, Rachel Tingle and Mrs. Guyton of Butler. They returned home late in the afternoon wishing Mrs. Baum many more happy birthdays.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Chambers and son, Murrel, of Elkhart township attended the Easter exercises at Passaic Sunday night.

Miss Grace Fulk was shopping at the county seat Friday.

Miss Alta Brown of Passaic visited Misses Mary and Prue Sharp Sunday.

Misses Marie and Nellie Brandon spent Easter with Miss Meta Baum.

The Butler visitors from Mound township Saturday were: Miss Ida Dillon, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Morris, Mr. L. C. Eichler, Prue Sharp, Sallie Holwell, Misses Bessie and Eva Gregg, Mrs. J. H. O'Dea, Mrs. O. C. Welch, Mrs. Dayton Rice of Passaic, John Shelby and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Christopher and son.

The Easter exercises at Passaic Sunday night was quite a success.

We heard that Miss Elsie Fouts and Sylvan Prettyman were united in marriage Sunday.

Mrs. B. E. Lockard called on Mrs. Jas. Brown of Passaic Saturday.

The writer called on Mrs. Ruth Snyder Monday.

Miss Mary Crawford is visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. B. Rice.

LITTLE IRISH ROSE.

Pleasant Gap.

Quite a severe storm passed through Rockville, Papinsville and Prairie City last Wednesday night. Some were killed and many were seriously injured.

Mrs. Tom Hancock and family spent Monday evening with Kirk Fillpot and family.

Ed Moore and John Woodfin spent last Sunday in Rich Hill visiting relatives.

Miss Anna Kipf and brother, Al, visited at Earl Leeper's Monday.

Mr. Henry Minnick and wife, who have been here visiting relatives and friends returned to Oregon last week.

Alex Moore and Tom Hancock sawed wood for Arthur Burkhardt last Monday.

Mr. Ira Brown and daughter, Miss Rosa, were Appleton City visitors last Tuesday.

Business was rushing in Pleasant Gap last Thursday.

Mrs. I. M. Brownfield has purchased a new incubator.

Will Brown sold a car load of corn to Ed Moore last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Steele were in Butler last Wednesday on a shopping expedition.

Misses Pearl Sharp, and Beulah Brown and Messrs. Ralph Culver, Emmett Ford, Will Brown, John Sharp and Mr. and Mrs. Milburn Sharp spent Sunday with John Woodfin and family.

Anna Kipf spent Sunday at Earl Leeper's.

BLUE BELLE.

Mt. Carmel News.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Burk returned Saturday from a week's stay in Kansas City. They were called there by the serious illness and death of Mrs. Burk's brother-in-law.

There were 48 at Sunday school at Mt. Carmel Sunday. Everybody cordially invited to attend.

E. F. Burk's house caught fire Tuesday of last week while he and Mrs. Burk were in Butler. The little girls were at home and after giving the alarm over the phone they proceeded to put out the fire. They had the fire just about out when the first help got there. It caught from the flue. Mr. Burk is very thankful to all who came to help.

Rev. Thomas Spencer filled his regular appointment at Mt. Carmel Sunday morning.

Miss Burdee Wolfe of the Virginia neighborhood is spending a week with her sister, Mrs. Lee M. Hardinger.

While Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Burk and son, Perry, and daughter, Maude, were returning from Butler Saturday their team became frightened and ran away. Mr. and Mrs. Burk were thrown out but not seriously hurt. The carriage was badly damaged.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee M. Hardinger attended Sunday school and church in Butler Sunday.

Several of the young people enjoyed an egg roast in what is known as the "Williams pasture," Saturday night.

Mrs. Chess Howell, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fleming, received word Friday that her husband was seriously sick with appendicitis and had been taken to Nevada for an operation. We have not learned how he stood the operation.

UNCLE HENRY.

Mulberry and Western Bates

Ekke Taute, one of the leading young farmers of Homer township has his date for The Times set ahead three years.

Chris Meints of Sterling, Neb., who has been helping his father for the past month improve his property in Old Mulberry, left Monday. His sister, Margaret, accompanied him as far as Lowmont, Kansas, where she will visit her sister, Mrs. Herman Sulite.

The following pupils of the Mulberry school took the final examinations in the 8th grade last week: Herman Bool, Andrew Londerholm, Nando Williams and George Kershner.

M. W. Bowersox and family visited, friends in Pleasanton, Kansas, the last of the week.

Miss Margaret Cooper spent Sunday with Marie Williams.

Miss Marvel Fall was the guest of Miss Inez E. Black Saturday night and Sunday.

John Dykman and family, Will R., and Walter Bohlken visited at H. K. Dykman's Friday.

Joe Lewellen of Elkhart township was a caller at the Rambler farm Friday while he invested in two settings of our Rose Comb Rhode Island Red eggs.

Messrs. Hugh Nestlerode and Carl Dudley of Kansas City came down Saturday to spend Easter with old neighbors.

Terry Hays and Orla Sargent were married at the home of the bride's parents in Amoret Thursday evening. The bride has been one of Amoret's popular school teachers for the past two years. The groom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Hayes. They will make their home on a farm one mile north of Amoret.

Col. J. Harlan Porter is one of the auctioneers at the F. J. Searle sale of 110 pure bred Holstein Friesian cattle. If the Colonel gets home from the Sunflower state alright to look out for his write up on this big sale.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Ewbank and son, Walter, ate dinner at Ye Pencil Pusher's Easter.

RAMBLER.

In and Around Maysburg.

The Hackler school closed Friday. The patrons of the school surprised the teacher by coming in at the noon hour with well filled baskets and remaining until after the exercises in the afternoon. Miss Stella Ramsy was teacher and has taught a good school.

Mrs. Ica Hibbs is visiting a few days with her sister, Mrs. James McCleary.

Loren Jacobs had his eye hurt quite badly while playing black man at school Friday.

Mrs. Simpson and Gilbert were shopping in Urich Saturday.

There is to be preaching at the Cove Creek Christian church next Sunday, April 30, by Rev. Lucius pastor of the Altam and Adrian Christian church.

Prof. H. O. Maxey made a fine talk to an appreciative audience at Cove Creek Sunday April 16. The congregation would hardly let him leave without promising to be back one Sunday in May.

Thelma White had an attack of the measles last week.

Mr. Jim Harrison, wife and little son, Grandma Edrington and Grandma Leslie came out from Butler Sunday to visit relatives.

The ladies of the Christian church had their house cleaning last Tuesday. They expect to observe Childrens Day the first Sunday in June. They have not decided as to the basket dinner the same day.

Mrs. Clark called on Mrs. White Saturday afternoon.

Mr. John Hoover and family visited at Mr. Dave Hoovers Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Montia Simpson visited at Tan White's Sunday afternoon.

Grandma Stroble has been quite poorly the past two weeks.

Mrs. Read and Miss Muchmore spent Saturday night and Sunday in Urich visiting Mrs. Read's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Hargraves three daughters and their families spent Sunday with them.

Quite a number of the young folks went to Montrose Sunday.

From all appearances the boys will have to foot the bill for the next class social. The girls are six ahead and only one more Sunday to work on.

Mrs. Godwin came out to the last day of school at Hackler and took Mary Lee and Gaylord home. They had been staying with their aunt until school was out.

A NEIGHBOR.

Oak Grove Items.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Cumpton spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Clara Batchelor.

A. L. Gilmore and family called at the George Keen home Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Claud Quick spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Randall.

A. T. Keen was a Butler visitor Saturday.

Geo. and Charley Wigger, Merl Sargent, and father went to Rockville Friday to see the path of the tornado.

Several of this vicinity attended the box supper at Cherry Grove Saturday night.

Geo. Keen and son, Elmer, were Appleton City visitors Tuesday.

Rev. Frey filled his regular appointment at Pleasant Home Sunday.

Dudley Cumpton and niece, Nena Batchelor, were Appleton City visitors Saturday.

There will be an old time roll call and basket dinner at the Oak Grove school house May 5. There will also be a program given. Everybody invited.

The Oak Grove Improvement Club will meet May 6.

PANSY.

For sale—High grade hand vacuum cleaner with fixtures, child's trundle bed, child's safety corral.

21-1f E. K. Wolfe, South Methodist Parsonage.

Sam Levy Mercantile Company

Have on sale hundreds of nobby suits and coats for Ladies and Misses.

$17.50 and $16.50 Suits on sale at
$12.98

$7.50 and $6.50 Coats on sale at $4.85

$22.00 and $18.00 Suits on sale at
$15.85

$10.00 and $8.50 Coats on sale at $6.95

$30.00 and $25.00 Suits on sale at
$17.75

$15.00 and $12.50 Coats on sale at
$9.75

Stylish Oxfords and Pumps for Ladies and Misses

LATEST OF THE SEASON
$2.50 to $5.00

R&G
RUSTLESS
CORSETS

Just Received New fancy silks, new tub silks; new fancy wash goods, new Kayser silk gloves, new crepe de chine handkerchiefs, more Phoenix silk hose, for which we are the exclusive agents in Butler.

Lots of Sample Lace Curtains on sale at - HALF PRICE
Lots of Fast Color Dress Gingham - 10c yard

Sam Levy Mercantile Company

1876

The store that keeps on growing.

1916